

The Cleveland Artists Foundation presents:

Don Hisaka

THE CLEVELAND YEARS

March 25, 2011 – May 21, 2011

Programs at the Cleveland Artists Foundation

Beck Center for the Arts, 17801 Detroit Avenue / 216-227-9507

Free to members; $5 for non-members / Membership information at www.clevelandartists.org

Opening Reception / Friday March 25, 2011 at 6pm

Walkthrough Exhibit with Cleveland Artists Foundation President James Gibans, FAIA and Wilma Salisbury, Hisaka essayist. Join us to follow and explore the Cleveland roots of an internationally recognized architect.

Panel Discussion / Thursday, March 31, 2011 at 6pm

Context for the Exhibit: Modern Mid-Century Architecture

Peter van Dijk, FAIA and Richard Fleischman, FAIA with Marc Manack, AIA

Panel Discussion / Thursday, April 14, 2011 at 6pm

The Art of Architecture

Moderator: Douglas Steidl, FAIA, Dean College of Architecture and Environmental Design, Kent State University; Steven Litt, Plain Dealer Architecture Critic and Greg Peckham, Executive Director, Cleveland Public Art

Panel Discussion / Saturday, May 7, 2011 from 2-4pm with Special Guest Don Hisaka, FAIA

Peers and Clients Moderator: Christopher Diehl, Director of Design URS

Panelists include Peers: William Blunden, FAIA, James Gibans, FAIA; Clients: Delos Cosgrove, Agnes Gund (Cleveland), Margaret Black, Daniel Butts III (Mansfield).

Tour of Temple B'nai Jeshuren / Sunday, May 8, 2011 from 1-3pm

The Building Speaks

Located at Fairmount Boulevard and Brainard Road. Reservations through Cleveland Artists Foundation. Cost $35.00

This exhibit will travel to the Cleveland Clinic over the summer of 2011, and to the Mansfield Art Center in January 2012

Partners: AIA Cleveland, The Cleveland Restoration Society, Cleveland Public Art, Cleveland Public Library, Kent State College of Architecture and Environmental, Cleveland Arts Prize